

Readings on Catholics in Political Life

Interest continues to grow among Catholics about what it means to be Catholic and engaged in the political life of our communities. Readings on Catholics in Political Life is a collection of excerpts from various papal, Vatican, and bishops documents. Each excerpt touches on a different aspect of the role that Catholics play in pursuing the mission of the Church in the world. Readings on Catholics in Political Life draws from such diverse sources as On the Value and Inviolability of Human Life, Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, and Faithful Citizenship: A Catholic Call to Political Responsibility. This collection is a valuable tool for catechetical and educational leaders in parishes, dioceses, and schools.

Faithful Citizenship

A Catholic Call to Political Responsibility

This statement of the bishops makes it clear that the dual calling of faith and citizenship is at the heart of what it means to be a Catholic in the United States. The work sounds a clarion call to every Catholic of the need to carry both Gospel and Church teachings into the political debate, to become more involved in public life, to protect human life and dignity and to advance the common good.
